PROFILE SAMPLE

Note: The sample serves the purpose of providing a guide for the critical information required for your profile to be published in a newspaper supplement. You may use a different choice of words from those in the samples.

DISTINGUISHED RESEARCHERS (NOT MORE THAN 500 WORDS)

DISTINGUISHED YOUNG RESEACHERS (NO MORE THAN 400 WORDS)

NB: All acronyms must be written in full at first usage.

XXX is full professor of YYY and the South African Research Chair Initiative chair in the TTT (research area/specialisation), hosted by the UUUU (Unit or Division) at TTT (university/institution). XXX is also the Director of the YYY (entity/programme), and Vice President of the JJJJ (society/organisation).

XXX's research focus is on CCC (expand on the research area focus/purpose). XXX formally established BBBB (institution or programme) as Founding Director in CCC (year), where she led some of the first prospective multidisciplinary studies in this field in Africa. Her research findings have contributed to ZZZ (state impact of research focussing on the theme of the Awards).

With a National Research Foundation WW (A1/B2 or C3?) rating, XXX is the author of nearly FF (number) peer-reviewed publications, including papers in leading international journals such as GGGG and HHHH. She is a frequent keynote speaker for international audiences, and has received several national and international scientific awards. (Expand and name the awards separating the international and national awards). XXX has successfully mentored TT (number) postdoctoral fellows, supervised AA (number) PhD, RR (number) master's and ZZ (number) BSc honours students, and currently supervises FF (number) PhD and GG (number) master's students.

A medical/engineering/(whichever is applicable) research scientist, registered with the KKK (relevant professional/voluntary association), XX is a Fellow of the Royal Society of South Africa, and a member of the South African Young Academy of Sciences. She serves on the editorial board of established journals like the VVVV (state journals).
