ACT

To provide for the protection, promotion, development and management of indigenous knowledge; to provide for the establishment and functions of the National Indigenous Knowledge Systems Office; to provide for the management of rights of indigenous knowledge communities; to provide for the establishment and functions of the Advisory Panel on indigenous knowledge; to provide for access and conditions of access to knowledge of indigenous communities; to provide for the recognition of prior learning; to provide for the facilitation and coordination of indigenous knowledge-based innovation; and to provide for matters incidental thereto.

PREAMBLE

RECOGNISING that the liberation of South Africa and its people from centuries of racial discriminatory colonial rule and domination and the establishment of a constitutional democracy was, is and will remain a historic achievement of all our people;

EMPHASISING that the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, enshrines the founding values of human dignity, the achievement of equality, non-racism and non-sexism, as well as the Bill of Rights entrenches inalienable rights to and freedom of human dignity, equality, education, culture, religion, language, research, creativity, environment and property, among others;

NOTING that the Republic of South Africa as a sovereign democratic state has taken its rightful place in the family of sovereign states and is committed and obligated to observe international treaties, covenants, as well as international law;

REALISING that the Government of the Republic of South Africa is committed to the economic, cultural and social upliftment and well-being of its people, free of discrimination;

TAKING into account that in the exercise of its sovereignty, South Africa has enacted and continues to enact legislation that underpins the protection, promotion and development of indigenous knowledge systems and indigenous knowledge;

RECOGNISING that indigenous knowledge is a national asset and that it is therefore in the national interest to protect and promote indigenous knowledge through law, policy and both public and private sector programmes;

WISHING to encourage the use of indigenous knowledge in the development of novel, socially and economically applicable products and services;

ACCEPTING that indigenous innovation is a unique approach to social innovation that informs and underpins the work of indigenous communities,

 (2) Indigenous knowledge constitutes property of indigenous communities within the meaning of section 25 of the Constitution.

Term of protection

- 10. (1) Indigenous knowledge is protected for as long as it meets the eligibility criteria set out in section 11. 20
 (2) If indigenous knowledge ceases to meet the eligibility criteria set out in section 11, it falls into the public domain from the date of proven ineligibility.

Eligibility criteria for protection

- 11. The protection of indigenous knowledge contemplated in section 9 applies to indigenous knowledge, which— 25
- (a) has been passed on from generation to generation within an indigenous community;
 - (b) has been developed within an indigenous community; and
 - (c) is associated with the cultural and social identity of that indigenous community. 30

Vesting of rights in indigenous knowledge

- 12. (1) Subject to section 9, the custodianship of indigenous knowledge eligible for protection vests in the trustee of that indigenous community.
 (2) The trustee of the indigenous community— 35
- (a) holds the indigenous knowledge in trust on behalf of the indigenous community; and
 - (b) is responsible for and accountable to the indigenous community for the protection of their rights.
- (3) In the event that, and for as long as, the indigenous community of the relevant indigenous knowledge cannot be identified and designated, NIKSO must act as custodian of that indigenous knowledge, with the rights and obligations of a trustee in respect of that indigenous knowledge. 40

Rights conferred

- 13. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the indigenous community holding indigenous knowledge has the exclusive right to— 45
- (a) any benefits arising from its commercial use;
 - (b) be acknowledged as its origin; and
 - (c) limit any unauthorised use of the indigenous knowledge.

Register of indigenous knowledge

- 19. (1) NIKSO must—
- (a) keep a Register of Indigenous Knowledge in the prescribed manner; and
 - (b) ensure the security of the Register.
- (2) The Curator must record in respect of each item of indigenous knowledge— 5
- (a) the particulars of the indigenous community from which the indigenous knowledge originates;
 - (b) whether the indigenous knowledge is functional indigenous knowledge or an indigenous cultural expression, or both;
 - (c) whether the information provided may only be shared with persons outside the indigenous community with its prior informed consent; 10
 - (d) whether any agreements have been entered into between an outside party and the indigenous community;
 - (e) whether the indigenous knowledge is closely related to indigenous knowledge registered by another indigenous community, and if so, details of that indigenous knowledge; and 15
 - (f) any such other particulars as may be prescribed.
- (3) The Register is presumed to be evidence of any matters directed or authorised by this Act to be recorded therein.

Registration of indigenous knowledge 20

- 20. (1) The trustee of an indigenous community may apply to the Curator in the prescribed manner for the registration of indigenous knowledge.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Curator may—
- (a) approve the application;
 - (b) approve the application subject to any conditions or limitations, and register 25 the indigenous knowledge; or
 - (c) reject the application if it does not meet the criteria set out in section 11.
- (3) The Curator must, within 30 days after the registration of the indigenous knowledge—
- (a) issue to the applicant a certificate of registration in the prescribed form; and 30
 - (b) publish, in the prescribed form, a notice of registration in the Indigenous Knowledge Bulletin and any appropriate publication.
- (4) In order to exercise any right in respect of indigenous knowledge under this Act, the indigenous community must register the indigenous knowledge in terms of Chapter 6. 35

Inspection of Register

- 21. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Curator must make the Register available for inspection by the public during working hours, upon payment of the prescribed fee.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), additional documents relating to the registration 40 of indigenous knowledge may only be made available to the public, if the person seeking access enters into a prescribed non-disclosure agreement.
- (3) The Curator must, as prescribed, at the request of any person, and on payment of the prescribed fee, furnish a copy of an extract of the Register, or a copy of a certificate of registration. 45

 - (b) reporting news or current events;
 - (c) judicial proceedings;
 - (d) any use that is incidental to the above purposes; and 5
 - (e) in circumstances of national emergencies or natural disasters, as long as the relevant indigenous community is compensated for the use of their indigenous knowledge.

(5) A licence holder must, subject to subsection (1), acknowledge the relevant indigenous community by mentioning them or the geographical place from which the indigenous knowledge originated. 10

(6) Any person who is aggrieved by a NIKSO decision or the conditions imposed with regard to access, may within 60 working days declare a dispute and refer the matter for resolution in terms of section 27.

CHAPTER 8 15

ENFORCEMENT OF RIGHTS

Dispute Resolution Committee

27. (1) The Minister may, subject to prescribed terms and conditions, appoint members of the Dispute Resolution Committee to resolve any dispute arising from this Act on an ad hoc basis. 20

(2) In resolving a dispute, the Dispute Resolution Committee must consider customary laws which may have a bearing on the subject matter of the dispute.

(3) Any party to a matter referred to the Dispute Resolution Committee may take the matter for review to the High Court.

(4) The Dispute Resolution Committee may, as a sanction: 25

- (a) issue a written warning to the licence holder;
- (b) issue a notice prohibiting the unauthorised use of indigenous knowledge by the licence holder; and
- (c) recommend to NIKSO the cancelling, suspending or revoking of the licence rights of a licence holder. 30

Offences and penalties

28. Any third party who—

- (a) knowingly makes commercial use of indigenous knowledge in a manner which is not in accordance with an agreement entered into with the indigenous community; and 35
 - (b) infringes the rights of that indigenous community,
- is guilty of an offence and on conviction liable to pay a fine as prescribed.

CHAPTER 9

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Transitional arrangements 40

29. (1) Indigenous knowledge originating in a foreign jurisdiction must be given the same protection granted to indigenous knowledge originating in the Republic, if the laws of that foreign jurisdiction provide reciprocal protection to indigenous knowledge originating in the Republic.

(2) In instances where indigenous knowledge originates in one or more indigenous communities in foreign jurisdictions and in the Republic, NIKSO must assist the relevant foreign authorities and the indigenous community of the Republic to conclude an arrangement to share equitably in the proceeds accruing to the indigenous communities in terms of that benefit sharing agreement. 45
